The Real General Principle*

Ah but the general principle is interpret it MY way. And if you can’t, under the law, then go ahead and create it! Anything not favoring those other bastards.

McConnell said “the most important [principles] are these: Americans expect and should receive equal treatment under the law, and Americans want judges who understand their role is to interpret the law, not write it.” -Politico